Re Testimonial - Rex Whitford

Rex Whitford has been my financial advisor since late 2002, initially through Monitor Money Corporation, and more recently through his new company - Wealth for Life Financial Planning. During this six year period, Rex has successfully guided my super, and investment portfolios through both good and bad times. His advice to take up a "protected growth guarantee" investment option has proved especially invaluable during the current financial crisis.

Although I have now retired, and left Adelaide, I felt comfortable enough with Rex's approach to financial management to retain his services; rather than seek someone more "local".

Yours sincerely
